Re: United States v. Shah et al
05 Cr. 673 (LAP)

Dear Judge Preska:

I am writing to the court to request that the court reconsider its decision to continue the trial on Friday. After we had adjourned for the day I spoke with my client Dr. Rafiq Sabir regarding the court's decision to have court on Friday. I was reminded by Dr. Sabir that Friday is the day of religious services for persons of the Islamic faith.

As the court is aware the request not to have court on Fridays was not a request that was made for counsel's convenience but out of consideration for Dr. Sabir's First Amendment right to freedom of religion.

Thus the court's decision to continue the trial on Friday has the dual impact of infringing on Dr. Sabir's First Amendment rights as well as having the additional impact of preventing a significant number of Dr. Sabir's supporters who happen to be Islamic as well from being able to be present for the closing arguments in a trial that they have consistently attended.

Therefore it is respectfully requested that the court reconsider its decision with respect to continuing the trial on Friday.

Respectfully submitted,

Edward D. Wilford
